

8 September 1983

STAT

MEMORANDUM FOR:

FROM:

SUBJECT:

IDC Conference Trip to San Diego
Trip to San Francisco after Conference

At long last, I have unscrambled all the changes to the above trip. Here is the latest so that you all can put through your 540Bs, and make your arrangements with Central Travel once you have the ORN number. I have not made any plane reservations with Central Travel for you, other than checking to see if seats were available on the flights mentioned.

25 September, Sunday

CONTINENTAL #385

Leave Dulles

9:50 a.m.

Arrive San Diego

1:48 p.m.

(This flight stops in ^{Denver} Houston, but the men will not get off plan Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2010/07/15 : CIA-RDP85-00142R000100260003-2

Leave San Diego for San Francisco, California

Either PSA flight #235
2:55 p.m. 1:00
or 2:30 p.m.

arr San Fran 2:18.

29 September 1983

UNITED #50

PAGE 2

Leave San Francisco 8:45 a.m.

Arrive Dulles 4:45 p.m.

Reservations for hotel rooms:

The hotel reservations for the IDC conference have already been made through your early registration at the conference. I called and checked with the Hotel del Coronado and all are registered and confirmed.

In San Francisco, I have made and confirmed hotel reservations with:

STAT

I have rented a full size car for Ed in San Francisco, and the other men will travel in his car.

29 September, Thursday

UNITED #50

Leave San Francisco 8:45 a.m. Arrive Dulles
4:45 p.m.

FYI: Ed will not be taking the flight out to San Diego with the other travelers. He will be leaving on a later flight as he wants to spend more time with his family on Sunday.

If you have any questions on this, don't call. Seriously, I'll help in any way, but I do feel that each of you should do your own plane reservations, due to ORN's, etc. Oh yes, the PSA flight somehow, we have to coordinate the same flights out to San Francisco, I'm open for suggestions....

STAT

